As part of our 2017 educational series, AIA Fort Lauderdale is hosting a distinguished panel of Women in Architecture. They will describe their experiences as active professionals who have risen to the top of a predominantly male profession. They will discuss topics related to the challenges and successes they have come across during the design and construction phases of various projects. They will also be fielding questions from the audience on these topics. Join us so that you can learn how women have contributed to the field of architecture as well as to show case their achievements.
