

AIA Fort Lauderdale

A Chapter of The American Institute of Architects

March Educational Workshop

Language of Light (1 HSW CE Hour)

Christa Green, LC
Regional Sales Manager, Louis Poulsen USA, Inc.

Date: Thursday, March 30, 2017 @6:00 pm

Place: STRANG Architecture, FTL Office
330 N Andrews Ave, Fort Lauderdale, FL 33301

This course aims to explain the fundamentals of lighting and designing with light. It will explore on basic lighting concepts, principles of light transfer and measurement as well as how we as human process light and the effect it has when designing with light.

Topics include:

- Definition of light, basic lighting terminology, and types of light distribution.
- How human process light.
- Basic principles of light transfer and measurement.
- LED basic and lighting application.

To RSVP please email Events/Education Committee Chairperson Blanca Martinez at aia.fl.education@gmail.com. Food and beverage will be provided. Please RSVP so that we can order accurately.